A training programme was arranged for teachers in May on effective teaching , and ethics of teaching and our teachers participated in many training programs conducted by CBSE COE, Sahodaya and various publishers..

TEACHERS

We are fortunate to have a group of brilliant teachers, well trained , well experienced , dedicated and capable of fulfilling the demands of the growing modern generation of the students – Thank you very much my dear fellow mates.

I congratulate all non-teaching staff for their valuable assistance

PARENTS

A word about parents of our students , You have been simply fantastic in your co-operation and collaboration with the school in so many of its activities. We thank all of you especially parent executive members who was elected in the first general body meeting of this academic year. Shri Sundaran Pothasseri and Smt.Sindhu Were elected as President and Vice President of School section respectively.

Teaching and parenting is of course is a privileged, sacred trust and it is very clear that the closer we can work together the more fruitful opportunities for each and every child continues to be in our school.

My dearest students, you are the energy, you are the happiness, the real soul , without you what else. I express my abundance of love towards you by holding you closer to my heart.

Let me take this opportunity to extend my deep felt gratitude and appreciation to our pro- active and dynamic management for their unwavering spirit and unflinching commitment to make our school one of the finest seats of learning in this region. We always remember the benign and insightful advice from our respected Chairman.

The good work of a school is the result of hard work of students , parents, teachers and school management and timely support from several quarters.

I feel extremely happy and proud that, this year we received an letter from CBSE by appreciating our activities.

Swami Vivekananda rightly said,

“Stand up, be bold, be strong, take the whole responsibility on your shoulders and know that you are the creator of your own destiny - All the strength and success you want is within yourself .” Yes.....we realize this fact and provide a safe and positive environment where children can reach their maximum potential transforming them into responsible citizens- our quest is to improve and strive for excellence .

Before concluding the report I bow my head before god with reverence.

'Together towards excellence' is our motto, we achieved a lot indeed and more no doubt can still be done..... Let's join our hands together , we can strive for excellence and face the new challenges ahead .

Thank you...
